CATAMARAN CUISE: AT SUNSET

Make the experience of a cruise sunset along the northwest coast of the island of Mauritius.

The sunsets in the North-West of Mauritius are legendary and the best way to appreciate one is from the ocean; you will embark on a magnificent 40-foot catamaran for lasting two hours along the North Coast, while sipping cocktails and tasting snacks served on board.

Departure is at 5pm. in Grand Baie. The return scheduled on Grand Bay is at 7pm.

NORTHERN CATAMARAN CRUISE: ILOT GABRIEL OR ILE PLATE

An unforgettable cruising experience on a 45-foot catamaran where you will enjoy the turquoise water, the breath-taking views, white sand beaches, snorkel in the lagoon and discover amazing marine life, the delicious food and the bar service. Relaxation and pleasure is guaranteed throughout the day.

The catamaran cruise starts at 9am., from Grand Baie.

The Îlot Gabriel is very famous for its pristine beaches and turquoise water surrounding the island. This is a well-known site among divers that can be seen snorkelling with mask and snorkel and which also offers superb dive sites.

The crew members will make you live a wonderful time and they will be delighted to tell you about the local stories, jokes and also play local music Mauritian. Atmosphere guaranteed!

NATURE: THE BOTANICAL GARDEN OF PAMPLEMOUSSES

Pamplemousses Botanical Garden is a must-see site of Mauritius. The garden is located at only few minutes from Port Louis, the capital.

Created by the French Governor Mahe de Labourdonnais, 3 centuries ago as his secondary home, the garden was created thanks to a French botanist, a man named Pierre Poivre who designed a large botanical garden with over 95 species of Palm trees. Note that Patrick Poivre d'Arvor is one of the descendants of the famous Pierre Poivre.
